Itinerary

Day 1: Beijing

After breakfast you will be picked up at your hotel, transferring to the [Qianmen Street]. Located at the central axis of Beijing City, Qianmen Street is a famous pedestrian street. After more than one year's renovation, Qianmen Street reopened on August 7th before the 2008 Beijing Olympics. It is a symbol of genuine Beijing local culture. Qianmen Street has many of China's time-honored names. Visitors can enjoy a traditional Chinese way of life. Moreover, Qianmen Street has many international brands, such as H&M, Haagen-Dazs, Sephora, ZARA, Qgggle, COSTS CAFÉ, and SK Jewelry. The most famous of China own names are as follows: Quanjude, Yitiaolong, and Douyichu, and Changchuntang. Then we will visit the [Liulichang]. Liulichang is known throughout China and the world for its ancient books, calligraphy, paintings, rubbings, ink stones and ink. The street, which is only 750 meters long, is located south of Hepingmen (Peace) Gate within walking distance of the Hepingmen Quanjude Peking Duck Restaurant. After lunch we will drive you to the [Panjiayuan Antique City]. Come to this massive, open air market to bargain for everything from life-sized terracotta warriors, vintage photographs, and Chinese style porcelain to calligraphy scrolls.

After all the visits, drive you back to the hotel. The tour ends when you are back to your hotel.
