Itinerary

Day 1: Beijing –Tianjin - Beijing

In the morning, you will be picked up by your guide with a cab at your hotel in Beijing and transferred to the train station for the bullet train to Tianjin. Upon our arrival in Tianjin, we will be met by a local driver with a van/car at the train station. Firstly we go to visit [Century Clock Tower] which is standing on the Jiefang Bridge and considered a landmark of the city. The Century Clock measures almost 40 meters in height and is embellished with relief carvings of the 12 symbols of the Chinese zodiac in bronze. Then walk around in the [Haihe River Park] along the Haihe River which is mother river of Tianjin City.

Go ahead to walk along the [Binjiang Dao Walking Street] and [Heping Road]. The two streets are the places to shop in Tianjin. Hundreds of retailer stores are assembled there. It is generally a pleasant experience shopping here due to less traffic and clean environment.

Lunch is arranged at [Nanshi Food Street] which is more like a shopping mall than a food street. It is a huge complex built in a traditional style with an area of 40,000 square meters, teemed with more than 100 restaurants.

After lunch, we continue to visit the [Ancient Cultural Street] where people come to enjoy its special architectural styles, see its classic cultural features, take home various folk crafts, and taste the delicious local Tianjin snacks.

Then we go to [Wudadao Sightseeing Street]. Wudadao literally means "5 big avenues" in Chinese. The five main avenues are Machangdao, Munandao, Dalidao, Chongqingdao and Chengdudao. There are totally 22 roads, with a total length of 17 kilometers and an area of 1.28 square kilometers. There are over 2,000 garden-style villas built in 1920s and 30s by different countries. It is recognized globally as the Exposition of Neoteric Architectures. Wudadao highlights Tianjin as the tangible textbook of Chinese modern history.

After all the visits, we will be transferred to the train station for the bullet train taking us back to Beijing. Upon getting back, take a cab at the train station going back to the hotel. The day tour ends when back to your hotel in Beijing.
