Itinerary

Day 1: Kunming – Stone Forest – Kunming

You will be picked up at your hotel in the morning and drive to the renowned [Stone Forest], a splendor natural heritage located 90 km southeast of Kunming. The various shapes of karst landscape was formed due to the millions years movement of Earth. The Stone Forest area is the home of the Hani people, their folk customs has become one spectacular scene, the colorful embroidery and minority dances combine with the natural sceneries, which will surely leave you a deep impression.

Located just opposite the Yunnan University, the [Green Lake Park] is one of the most picturesque parks in downtown Kunming. There are nine spring outlets at north of the lake, so it was also named "Nine Dragon Pond" in ancient times. Here you may take a leisure walk or enjoy the performance (playing Taiji, Majiong and local opera) by local people. In November and December every winter, huge flocks of red-beaked gulls migrate here from Siberia and north China, presenting a spectacular scene for this mild-climate highland city.

After the Green Lake Park, transfer you back to the hotel. The tour ends when back to your hotel.
